HOMECOMING '84

Homecoming activities started on October 1, 1984, with our annual celebration. Registration of alumni was held in Halleck Center, the popular beer and brat tent opened on campus, with the parade to follow. The Alumni battled the varsity in a soccer game.

Saint Joe tackled Evansville in a Heartland Collegiate Conference football game. A happy hour followed the game in Halleck Center Ballroom.

This years homecoming was fun, thrilling, and exciting.

Homecoming court with their escorts, left to right: Don Dohr, Theresa Brodeur, Glenn Voreis, Brigid Conroy, Joe Buschio, Kelly Donegan, Rob Bridges, Lori Gosnell, Keith Jones, and Jennifer Rapp.

Not everybody sits down on the bench.

Look what's going down there!

Who's got the ball?

We're the pouncing pumas!

The Art Club spruced up the ballroom according to the theme, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas'.

The production of Phase '84 has been very time consuming and challenging. Without the help of a few people this book would not have been published. We would like to thank Mr. Charles Schuttrow and his wife Delores for their assistance first semester. Their kindness and understanding has helped us get through the year. Also, we would like to thank our second semester advisor, Kerry Langan, for handling all of our business affairs. A special thanks goes to Jack Sanborn of Walsworth Publishing Co. for helping us get off of the ground. Finally, we would like to thank our small, but hard working staff, especially Denise Davenport and Ruthann Goller.

Due to personal expectations this will be our last year as co-editors of Phase. We hope that you have enjoyed our work as much as we have. Thanks to all!

Nick Granato
